Luxury Penthouse in Incredible Location

This memorable home in the heart of Trinidad/H Street Corridor combines location, charm, and comfort under one roof. What's not to love? Welcome to 1227 Morse Street NE #4, a stylish 2-bed, 2-bath condo that's fit for the discerning urban buyer. Set over 1,706 square feet, this contemporary haven invites you to make yourself at home from the second you walk through the front door. Inside, light-filled vantages, hardwood floors, and elegant wood accents envelop you in wonder and warmth. The expansive, open living area is the perfect backdrop for all of life's adventures, from special occasions made for celebrating to everyday evenings spent unwinding after a long day. Just steps away, the state-of-the-art kitchen features stainless steel appliances, marble countertops, creative storage options, and chic light fixtures that add a touch of flair. Down one hallway, you'll find the first bedroom—a spacious sanctuary—and a full bathroom. Beyond the kitchen is a spa-like bathroom and a hallway leading to the south-facing Primary Suite, which connects to an inviting patio just beyond the sliding glass doors. And last but not least: take the stairs up to your private, finished rooftop deck that offers iconic views of the Capitol and Washington Monument—not to mention endless opportunity to entertain. A rare yet coveted perk, private parking is also part of this all-in-one package. Further adding to the home's well-documented allure is its location. Known as one of the most vibrant, dynamic areas in all of DC, Trinidad/H Street Corridor connects its residents with some of the most notable attractions around. Catch a show at the Atlas Performing Arts Center, sample the eclectic dining destinations at your fingertips, play mini golf at H Street Country Club, explore the storied Union Market, and run everyday errands with ease. The can't-miss opportunity of the spring season, 1227 Morse Street NE #4 is your key to the lifestyle you deserve.
