Seamless City Living in the Heart of Capitol Hill

Searching for an urban escape? Look no further than 642 Independence Avenue SE, a 1-bed, 1-bath home in Capitol Hill where character and intuitive design collide. Past the townhome's picturesque brick exterior, a sun-dappled and spacious layout is your key to a seamless city routine. After stepping inside, the home's main living area helps you feel right at home with its hardwood floors, fireplace, custom built-ins, and room for a dining table. Around the corner, an updated kitchen serves up stainless appliances and ample cabinetry, while a classic bathroom across the hall exudes tranquility. Whether you're entertaining company or savoring a quiet night in, the endless possibilities here are yours to imagine. Equipped with the closet space your belongings deserve, the radiant Primary Suite is designed to help you unwind after a hard day's work. And whenever you want to enjoy the outdoors, just head up to your private roof deck and let the iconic city views come to you. In-unit laundry round out the amenities included with the home itself.

Set on a scenic street in Capitol Hill, this home combines the tranquility of residential rhythms with the buzz of urban access — only adding to its allure. Venture over to Eastern Market to sample produce and shop for hidden gems, try Barracks Row for its eclectic mix of pizzerias and global eateries, and simply hop on the nearby Metro to reach other notable DC destinations in no time. A contemporary haven in a timeless neighborhood, 642 Independence Avenue SE is proof that your next home can have it all.
