Sunlit and Spacious in Symphony Park

Stunning, rarely available, End-Unit home in the award-winning Symphony Park neighborhood. Featuring 5 bedrooms over 4,000 SF, in this meticulously designed home with soaring ceilings, brick on all sides, tree-lined views, and a short path away from the red line metro station. You are greeted with thoughtful custom built-ins, crown moldings, 9.5' ceilings, elegant columns and grand staircase. The first level was crafted with every convenience in mind with a formal living room complete with gas fireplace, bedroom and full bathroom, making this the perfect set up to allow guests or au pair to stay comfortably and privately. Additionally there is ample storage that can be a future second laundry room. Filled with sunlight, this large, end-unit model is surrounded by brick on all sides. Upstairs showcases beautiful hardwood floors and windows that fill light with a south and west exposure. The gleaming kitchen spared no expense or character with features such as a custom built-in desk and bookshelves, double height kitchen cabinetry and marble countertops, an immense kitchen island, eat-in kitchen, under cabinet lighting, large pantry, built-in column fridge and freezer, and stunning Viking appliances. The kitchen flows into the generous family room with a built-in banquet, custom built-ins and a powder room that is tucked away for maximum privacy.

Entertain with ease with the help of the expansive second dining and living area with built-in speakers, oversized windows, and views over the tree-lined cobblestone streets. Off the kitchen you'll find a generous deck built with durable parquet, making it equipped for all seasons. Situated on the third level is the voluminous primary bedroom that offers a sitting area, two large walk-in closets, a glistening spa-like ensuite bathroom with Steamist steam and rain showers, relaxing soaking tub and dual vanities with classic walnut wood and marble tops. In addition, the third floor features two generous bedrooms, one additional full bathroom, and a walk-in laundry room. Last but certainly not least, is the boundless fourth level. With cathedral ceilings, a built-in wet bar, and surround sound speakers, this vast space has endless possibilities. Make this your own at-home office, gym, studio or second guest space with another ensuite bathroom. Enjoy a comforting book or catch up with old friends with the help of the convenient, two-sided fireplace in the large family room that leads to your roof deck where you can enjoy gorgeous tree top views. At 10887, your bustling everyday schedule can be tackled with the help of an EV ready, two-car garage, two additional parking spaces and a doggy door that leads to a fenced-in dog run alongside your home, for quick trips with your furry friends, and a beautiful front fenced yard with garden.

When you're not on the go, reap all of the benefits of living in remarkable Symphony Park. Enjoy a low-maintenance lifestyle with lawn care and snow removal included. Located adjacent to the grounds of the award-winning Strathmore Arts Center you have access to the music center with a large concert hall and the Levine School of Music. Indulge in the ravishing Strathmore Mansion which hosts afternoon tea, intimate concerts, and an art gallery. Every season boasts sensational opportunities such as the free, outdoor summer concerts. Outside of the neighborhood, you're located just minutes to Pike & Rose and to downtown Bethesda. Travel to and from the city, Virginia, or Maryland with ease as the Grosvenor-Strathmore Metro is just a few minutes away taking the 1/3 of a mile path that connects the Symphony Park community and the Metro Station, taking you downtown in less than 30 minutes! Perched in the perfect fusion of suburban and city living, your next home at 10887 Symphony Park truly has it all.
