At the rear of the residence, the primary suite is a true sanctuary, defined by expansive proportions, exceptional natural light, and dramatic floor-to-ceiling glass doors opening directly to a private balcony. The spa-inspired primary bath evokes the sophistication of a five-star hotel, featuring refined designer finishes and an atmosphere of understated luxury. Every element has been thoughtfully considered to create a peaceful retreat above the energy of the city. Crowning the home is an extraordinary private rooftop terrace, offering sweeping views across Logan Circle's picturesque treetops and sightlines toward the iconic Washington Monument.
